

Dear Captain Underpants,

How are you today? I hope you are ok.
Do you get cold just wearing underpants? I know sometimes I do.

Are you really a captain, or do you like just being called that.

I love your cape. I used to have one when I was little but it doesn't fit anymore, which sometimes makes me sad.

I love reading your books, Santa brought me
the box set for christmas so I'm working my way through them.

If I could have super powers I would like teleportation and super speed!

Hope to hear back from you soon

Ben Grady
